

Agreement for Conference Exchanges between the Japanese Political Science Association and the Australian Political Studies Association

The Japanese Political Science Association (JPSA) and the Australian Political Studies Association (APSA) recognise the value of greater interaction between political studies associations across our region. In this spirit, the two Associations have agreed to facilitate academic exchanges at each other's Annual Conferences.

APSA will provide two members of the JPSA with free full conference registrations (including tickets to the conference dinner) to attend its Annual Conferences. The two JPSA members will be responsible for their travel and accommodation costs to attend the APSA Annual Conference.

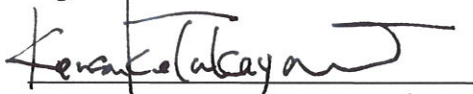

JPSA will provide two members of APSA with free full conference registration (including tickets to the conference dinner) to attend its Annual Conferences. The two APSA members will be responsible for their travel and accommodation costs to attend the JPSA Annual Conference.

The JPSA will be responsible for selecting the candidates to attend the APSA Conference. APSA will be responsible for selecting the candidates to attend the JPSA Conference. The names of the successful candidates will be passed on to the Association organising the Conference at least six weeks before the Conference is to be held.

The selected candidates will be expected to present papers at the Conference for which they are being sponsored. They will also be expected to write a report on the Conference they attended for publication in their Association's newsletter or other official outlet.

This Agreement shall remain in effect for a period of three years from the Effective Date. Upon expiration of the term, this Agreement shall automatically renew unless one party provides written notice of termination at least one year before the end of the current term.
