Sydney Policy Lab Breakfast - RD Watt Building

This breakfast is followed by a Sydney Policy Lab-APSA roundtable in the RD Watt Building (9:30am – 11:00am) - Future Endeavours in Collaborative Policymaking

To what extent do models of collaborative public policy and associated meanings resonate with those who are the human actors in these endeavours? How do such people respond to analyses of their agency, collaborations, and possible futures of such work? Where might those involved in collaborative policymaking take such frameworks for analysis and action? Co-hosted by Professor Helen Sullivan, Dean of the College of Asia and the Pacific at the Australian National University, and Dr Kate Harrison Brennan, Director of the Sydney Policy Lab at the University of Sydney, this roundtable will bring together academics and practitioners interested in collaborative policy making.

Connect with colleagues and conference attendees at the SEI networking breakfast - Sounds Café at Chau Chak Wing Museum
